

WASHINGTON METROPOLITAN AREA TRANSIT COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, D.C.

ORDER NO. 2761

IN THE MATTER OF:

Served September 5, 1985

Application of V.I.P. TOURS for     ) Temporary Authority to Conduct     )
Special Operations -- Days Inn-     )
Capital Centre                     )

Case No. AP-85-23

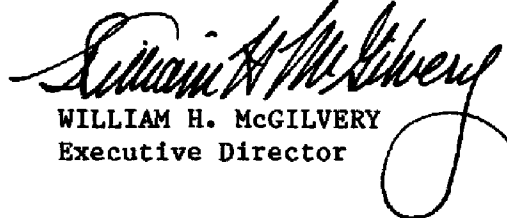

The Commission granted the above-captioned application for temporary authority by Order No. 2747, served August 9, 1985. Recognizing that temporary authority cannot extend beyond 180 days, the Commission directed V.I.P. Tours, if it wanted permanent authority, to apply for it within 30 days in order to permit adequate time for orderly processing.

By motion filed September 5, 1985, V.I.P. Tours seeks a 30-day extension, asserting that "it needs the additional time to ascertain the scope of service it seeks to apply for and to prepare the application itself." Applicant and its counsel are "aware of the time restraints" and believe they would still have "sufficient time to file and prosecute an application for permanent authority."

In the end, this must be applicant's decision. The filing requirement will be rescinded.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

FOR THE COMMISSION:

WILLIAM H. MCGILVERY
Executive Director
